

Train

There is a fast and frequent rail service from London King's Cross (45 minutes), London Liverpool Street (1 hour 15 mins) and Stansted Airport (30 minutes) through to Cambridge. There are excellent connections from Scotland & the North via Peterborough, as well as services from Birmingham & the Midlands, East Anglia & the North West. Cambridge train station is about a 20 minute taxi ride from The Møller Centre.

Car

There is free on-site parking for over 150 cars at The Møller Centre. Please note that Storey's Way, when entering from Huntingdon Road (A1307), has width restrictions. Alternatively approach Storey's Way from Madingley Road entrance.

Bus

Cambridge has a network of buses run by Stagecoach. The buses that run along Madingley Road are the Citi 4/Uni4 and the Madingley Road Park and Ride bus service. The most direct bus to The Møller Centre from the city centre is the Citi 4 bus service from Drummer Street; the bus will stop along Madingley Road opposite Churchill College.

Cycle

The Møller Centre is a 5 minute cycle from the city centre. Plenty of cycle parking is available.

Plane

All the major London airports are readily accessible via road and rail.

The Møller Centre has two consists of two building: The Study Centre is the big glass building on your left as you go up the drive. The main building entrance is through the covered walkway (pictured below)
